Introduction

My dear Truth Seeker,

We have not met but we share much in common. We want to find out what is hidden and unseen. We are curious about God, Angels, and the mysteries of the Spirit World. Also, we share this lifetime full of soul searching and ultimately achieving our highest potential.

My own journey to become a psychic medium did not start until I was in my twenties. I have always been a spiritual person. As child, I had a long conversation with Jesus and the Saints for many years, but I thought that happened to all Catholic people. I spoke to Angels and always felt an incredible sense of peace and compassion from reciting Angel Prayers. Later, I became a registered nurse and wanted to dedicate my life to working and teaching nursing professional skills.

As fate would have it, my life was turned upside down with an unexpected turn of events. In March 2003, my father was struck by a car while crossing the street. For several days he fought for his life, but lost the battle and left his family completely shattered by the tragedy.

His death was the hardest test of faith I ever endured. At some point I went through a dark cold path – a place ruled by fear and desperation. I know that place. I have been there. Now that I have done thousands of spiritual readings, I have seen clients living their worst fears from that place. Ultimately, every human experience happens for a reason. My journey led me to see a Medium in Toronto and I took a turn in an unexpected direction.

The Divine Guidance always answers your prayers but sometimes not in the way you would hope. I came for a brief mediumship session with a Psychic Medium, who was able to channel my Dad. An interesting thing happened: I actually had a vision of my father talking to me through the woman. It was weird. I left her office on that day and I could see spirits everywhere. They were talking to me too. It took me years of studying psychic development to understand and get control over this phenomenon.

11 Powerful Angel Prayers To Say When You See 11:11

I accepted my clairvoyance as a gift. I was receiving messages from the spirit world and Angels on a daily basis. In 2009, I opened my business as a medium and psychic reader to be able to share these messages with the world as my full-time job. My life purpose is to heal people who have lost their loved ones from grief and to help people find the spiritual guidance from above.

Much love and light,
Josie

Prayer For Protection

Archangel Michael,
I am calling on your powerful strength to protect me from negative energy and destructive intentions of other people. Please shield me with a wall of purple light that reflects negativity and sends it back to those who sent it my way.

May I always feel safe in your presence. Help me to repair my aura from any damage so that my natural energy protection is always strong. I will dissolve worries in your warm loving light, and fill myself with peace. I am protected from all harm now. Amen.
